

Pain In My Heart (Love And Pain)

Words & Music: Bear/Marin

(c) Lucky Bear Music/Schmolzi/Slezak

Sung by Inga Rumpf (I Know Who I Am)

I see the clouds
I feel the rain
It's all coming down to you again

Take the ashes
Though memories stay the same
It's all coming down to love and pain

Heading for the coast
Trying to make the most of this misery

Cause there's a pain in my heart
And it's tearing me apart
Well, I guess it all comes down to love and pain

I see the clouds
I feel the rain
It's all coming down to love and pain

On the road again
Tomorrow I'll fly and play L.A., oh yeah

But there's a pain in my heart
And it's tearing me apart
Well, I guess that's just the way that story goes

There's a hunger in my veins
And it's driving me insane
Well, I guess it all comes down to love and pain

There's a hunger in my veins
And it's driving me insane

So won't you help me
Won't you help me
Won't you help me, help me, help me
